Can children follow simple instructions to locate places in school? Can children use an aerial map of school to locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to describe where they are going or where something is located e.g. 'near, far, left, right and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and	Year 1	Geography Focus	My Home and School
Can children use directional vocabulary to find places in school? Can children follow simple instructions to locate places in school? Can children use an aerial map of school to locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to describe where they are going or where something is located e.g. hear, far, left, right and behind? Can I begin to discuss the human and ohysical features they can see around their school?	Key Knowledge			Key Vocabulary
 House: A building in which people meet or stay. House: A building in which people meet or stay. House: A building in which people meet or stay. House: A building in which people meet or stay. Address: Exact location of a particular building. Map: A drawing of a particular area such as a city, country, or a continent, showing its main features maps are drawn from an aerial view. It is called 'a bird's eye view'. Personal: Areas relevant to a single person. Local: Areas relevant to a small group of people. Directions: Direction is used to determine where thin are in relation to other things (forwards, backwards, le right, turn, near, far, reverse). Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features. 	Can I locate	e my house on the map?		Home: Where you live.
 b find places in school? Can children follow simple instructions o locate places in school? Can children use an aerial map of school o locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to lescribe where they are going or where tomething is located e.g. 'near, far, left, ight and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Can I begin to discuss the human features they can see around heir school?<!--</td--><td>Can childrei</td><td>n use directional vocabulary</td><td>, the second s</td><td>School: Where you are educated.</td>	Can childrei	n use directional vocabulary	, the second s	School: Where you are educated.
An children to low simple instructions to locate places in school? Can children use an aerial map of school to locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to lescribe where they are going or where tomething is located e.g. 'near, far, left, ight and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school?	to find places in school?		d B	House: A building in which people meet or stay.
 o locate places in school? Can children use an aerial map of school o locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to lescribe where they are going or where omething is located e.g. 'near, far, left, ight and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and hysical features they can see around heir school? Map: A drawing of a particular area such as a city, country, or a continent, showing its main features maps are drawn from an aerial view. It is called 'a bird's eye view'. Personal: Areas relevant to a single person. Local: Areas relevant to a small group of people. Directions: Direction is used to determine where thin are in relation to other things (forwards, backwards, le right, turn, near, far, reverse). Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features. 	an childrei	n follow simple instructions
Can children use an aerial map of school to locate places? Can children use positional vocabulary to describe where they are going or where tomething is located e.g. 'near, far, left, right and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and physical features they can see around their school?		•		Map: A drawing of a particular area such as a city, a
Can children use positional vocabulary to describe where they are going or where something is located e.g. 'near, far, left, right and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and physical features they can see around their school? Personal: Areas relevant to a small group of people. Directions: Direction is used to determine where this are in relation to other things (forwards, backwards, le right, turn, near, far, reverse). Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features.	Can children use an aerial map of school		ol Carlos	are drawn from an aerial view. It is called 'a bird's eye describe where they are going or where something is located e.g. 'near, far, left, right and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and physical features they can see around their school? Local: Areas relevant to a small group of people. Directions: Direction is used to determine where thin are in relation to other things (forwards, backwards, le right, turn, near, far, reverse). Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features.	•		to Friday P	Personal: Areas relevant to a single person.
something is located e.g. 'near, far, left, right and behind'? Can I begin to discuss the human and physical features they can see around their school? Directions: Direction is used to determine where thin are in relation to other things (forwards, backwards, le right, turn, near, far, reverse). Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features.	•			Local: Areas relevant to a small group of people.
Can I begin to discuss the human and obvisical features they can see around their school? Their school?				Directions: Direction is used to determine where things
Can I begin to discuss the human and obysical features they can see around their school? Human features: Man made features. e.g. buildings. Physical features: Naturally occurring features.	right and be	ehind'?		are in relation to other things (torwards, backwards, lett right turn near far reverse)
physical features they can see around their school? Physical features: Naturally occurring features.	Can I begin	to discuss the human and	EPrivat physical features they can see around
Types of houses and homes:	heir schoo	4
			Guiden Sutton Method st Office	es and homes:
	A STA	Schoolth
	10	School/Lin Chester Lashes
	And I
	Halecroft		st John The Baptist	flats detached cottage caravan terrace

bungalow

Guilden Sutton Church of England Primary School – Geography Knowledge Organiser

Key Knowledge

• Can I make recordings about the weather with some support?

- Can I know how weather can affect people's lives?
- Can I use world maps and globes to identify a range of countries, the Equator and the North and South Poles?
- Can I explain weather dangers and how people can protect them?
- Can I make comparisons between different types of weather?
- Can I make observations about the weather using description and some explanation?

Key Vocabulary

Weather: weather types (e.g. sun, rain, thunder, snow, wind etc).

Seasons: change of months of the year, autumn, winter, spring, summer.

Daily: day to day.

Weather recording: observation (looking), temperature/ thermometer.

Dangerous weather: extreme, flooding, drought,

